

CHALLENGE COIN DESIGN HIGHLIGHTS

A unique coin design incorporates the arrival of Hawaii's first namesake naval vessel, USS HAWAII (SSN 776) – a Virginia-class post-Cold War design submarine. A custom illustration depicts USS HAWAII on one side and the classic Navy League seal on the other. Third in her class, USS HAWAII is the first Virginia-class submarine assigned to the U.S. Pacific Fleet and is fittingly assigned in Pearl Harbor, located in her namesake state and home porting in the 50th Year of Hawaii Statehood. The challenge coin contains key dates marking the start of USS HAWAII's service career: keel laying, christening, commissioning and homeporting. It also features the Ship's Motto, the word Aloha and the Hawaii State emblem. Ship sponsor, Hawaii Governor Linda Lingle is identified directly below the Submarine. This information is encircled with a benchmark marquee inside a rope braid. A collectible item and great gift idea.

USS Hawaii on Commissioning Day, May 5, 2007 in Naval Submarine Base New London, Groton, Connecticut.

Coin is 1.75" diameter, die-struck in brass with a rich-looking 24k gold plate.
